THE RICH AMERICANS

Without exception, every one of the Finnish exchange students whom we interviewed recently came to this country convinced that we as Americans were all so rich that no one here had to work. Since these are intelligent, extremely well educated students, we take this to be the image of United States citizens as taught in Europe. It is little wonder that this impression has been created abroad since our Aid Programs seem to be

AMBULANCE FUND DRIVE PASSES HALF-WAY MARK

The committee for the Mattapoisett Ambulance Fund Drive wishes to announce that more than $5000. has already been donated by generous hearted citizens. The house-to-house canvass has been completed and anyone who was omitted may send his subscription either to Mr. Anthony Roderick, treasurer, or the Mattapoisett Police Station.

The amount raised is most encouraging to us all and we now look forward to continuing our drive until the desired amount of $8000. is reached.

Many touching letters have been received from those who have had occasion to use the ambulance and contributions have been included in gratitude for the fine service given by the Police Department.

PLAY HELPS AMBULANCE FUND

Local youngsters have their share of public spirit. A play was written, directed and presented last week on August 17th at the Dexter Garage on Rock Street, Mattapoisett. The title of the production was "Georgie's Birthday". The cast included Debbie Dexter, 11 years old; Janet Dorr, age 8; Susan Dexter, 12 years old; and Patsy Dexter, 8 years old. The children collected two dollars in admissions and donated the entire amount over to the Mattapoisett Ambulance fund. This sort of community shining in the waste heap of the Pacific War. The flag raising at Iwo Jima comes to mind because of that great photograph which caught the instant. Why did these men expose themselves, once again, to death at the top of this height. They had crawled ashore through a surf reddened with the blood of their friends to take cover behind the bodies of their newly dead brothers, on an exposed beach, pinned down by murderous fire from Mt. Suridachi. Those that lived fought and clawed their way up the mount. Reaching the top they raised our flag. Was it valor or was it foolishness? We say it was reverence and it was hope. It was atonement for comrades dead in the surf and the sand below. It was a symbol of love of home and family and of sane hope for the future in an insane present. Men expose their souls in the presence of death. These did so with a flag of honor.

Self-styled "intellectuals", who use the term "flag waver" with contempt, would do better to find another slogan in their effort to discourage national patriotism. Most Americans hold the flag and the country it stands for in a very high regard. This country comes first. It must, for unless this nation is strong there is no protection for free nations. Unless this Republic stands,

VISITING PARENTS FROM SWITZERLAND

On Rounseville Road, Rochester resides a pair of proud grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse Raymond, who are enjoying their first grandchild to the fullest because at the end of this month Nicole Treichler will be returning to Switzerland with her parents. The adorable seven month old Nicole is the daughter of the Raymond's only child, Marion Raymond Treichler, and Nino H. Treichler of Wadenswil, Switzerland, a suburb of Zurich.

This is Mrs. Treichler's first visit to the United States in six years and the first time she has seen her parent's new home. Before her marriage six years ago the Alphonse Raymonds lived in Fairhaven having built and moved here three years ago.

Mrs. Treichler met her husband when she was attending Columbia University and her husband was in this country studying American methods used in the textile industry. Mr. Treichler also learned the English language of which he has an excellent command. The Swiss gentleman is associated with his father in the textile industry in Switzerland. They are engaged in the manufacturing of Helanca yarn and specifically in the twisting of the product.

The Treichlers noted three principal languages are spoken in Switzerland with approximately a third speaking a German dialect, another third French, and Italian is spoken by the people living nearest the I-

NIGHT SHOOTING ON NORTH STREET PROTESTED

A copy of the following letter has been submitted to the Mattapoisett Board of Selectmen.

To the Board of Selectmen
Town of Mattapoisett, Massachusetts

Gentlemen:

As Attorney for property owners on North Street and Crystal Spring Road, I wish to protest your proposed granting to the Fin, Fur and Feather Club, Inc. of Mattapoisett, licenses to conduct trap shooting events on the club property on Wednesday evenings and on Sundays. I have appeared before you on behalf of the property owners at your meetings held on July 5 and July 25, 1961, and I have attempted to present to you the reasons why the shooting by the club constitutes a nuisance, and have repeatedly requested that you regulate it to abate an existing nuisance to the property owners. At the meeting on July 25, 1961, I was led to believe that you would not arrive at this decision until the fifteenth of August, 1961 when the full Board would be able to decide this matter. I therefore did not appear on August 1, 1961 at which time, I have been given to understand, you voted to grant two licenses to the club, one for Sunday shoots to be conducted between 1:00 and 7:00 P.M., the other for Wednesday nights, shooting to be conducted until 10:00 P.M. until September 13 and after September 13 until 9:00 P.M. My clients feel that they should have had notice on your proposed ruling on this matter and we hereby wish to protest against the granting of the two licenses for the hours and times specified above.

Our protests against the granting of the two licenses are on the following grounds:

1. After a permanent license has been issued for each Sunday and each Wednesday of the year, you could revoke such a license for cause only, and the club could utilize each Sunday and each Wednesday during the year, thus creating a nuisance of great magnitude.

2. We must again inform you that to the 20 families and 49 children living in the afected areas of Crystal Spring Road and North Street, firing until 10:00 P.M. constitutes a definite nuisance, and we reiterate our request that you abate this nuisance by limiting firing on Wednesday night to no later than 8:00 P.M. on no more than two Wednesdays in each month.

3. We feel that the Selectmen should issue a separate license for each contemplated shooting event to be held by the club on either Wednesdays or Sundays in order to insure control over the number of events held by the club in any month, particularly since the club breached its agreement with the Selectmen during the initial trial period for Wednesday night shooting and fired after the hours authorized in the Wednesday license.

4. We suggest that no more than two Sunday shooting licenses be issued in any month, and that no consecutive licenses for Wednesday evening and Sunday shooting be issued except in special circumstances.

5. We wish to inform the Selectmen that the property values in the affected area have been adversely affected through the shooting activities of the club, and that the affected property owners intend to file for an abatement of their taxes on the basis of this noise nuisance.

6. We wish to suggest that a reasonable regulation of shooting events to be conducted by this club would consist of permitting them to conduct a total of shooting events not greater than 50 per cent above the number of events conducted by them in any one of the last three or four years. In this regard we believe that the club held not more than seven or eight such events on Sundays on the club premises in the years prior to the installation of the present trap shooting facilities.

Respectfully submitted,
Berthold Putman

Visiting from Switzerland and Italian border. A universal language spoken by most of the people residing in Switzerland is Swiss-German. Both Mr. and Mrs. Treichler have a command of the majority of the languages spoken in Switzerland.

The three Treichlers made the trip to the United States by jet. Both parents and grandparents are proud of Nicole who captivates everyone who sees her. Mrs. Treichler, a charming brunette with a serene manner, explained Nicole has a dual citizenship, American-Swiss, by virtue of an American mother and Swiss father. Continuing she said her daughter will have to live five consecutive years in the United States after she has reached the age of 16 and before she is 28 if she is to retain her American citizenship.

Among quaint customs pertaining to women, Mrs. Treichler said women are not allowed to vote. For an American woman going to Switzerland to live, some of the changes required and expected are not always easy to get used to.

Mrs. Treichler mentioned the differences in the educational system in the United States and Switzerland. She emphasized she was not ing how to read and write. The Swiss maintain the traditional concept in education and their system follows the old fashioned methods compared to progressive methods used in many of our schools throughout the United States.

The Swiss children commence school when they are about seven years old and complete eight grades which is equivalent to our traditional 12 years of public schooling. Schools are in session 11 months of the year, with a month's vacation, and children go to school one half day on Saturdays. Great emphasis is placed on physical education with skiing and mountain climbing participated in by most of the Swiss people.

The Treichlers said a Sunday afternoon is spent by a Swiss family going for a walk. The Swiss people are great walkers and encourage this because of the benefits derived from walking and its healthy aspects. The family unit is strong in Switzerland and the Treichlers mentioned families can be seen climbing mountains, skiing or just walking for relaxation.

Zurich is a very cosmopolitan city and one can see a wide range of styles in clothing worn by men and women. Dress in Switzerland tends to be more formal noted Mrs. Treichler with even little girls wearing white gloves. Our casual dress is not seen on the streets but confined to the home. Swiss children are not as sophisticated as our American children. Boys wear short pants up to the ages of 14 or 15.

Mrs. Treichler explained how one has to get used to shopping in Switzerland after our one stop shopping centers here. One goes to the butcher for meat and is confronted by sausages of every description. One can get any kind of meat but the cuts vary from our traditional cuts such as sirloin steak. One of the most popular meats sold is milk fed veal. Then one has to go to a dairy store for cheeses, butter, bread and milk, and then to a self-service store for canned goods. Mrs. Treichler said you can purchase many of the well known brands of canned goods and comparably the prices are reasonable.

In the mountains one can get what is called air dried beef. It is beef that is hung outside and is dried by mountain air giving it a smoked flavor and ready for eating. Air dried beef can be obtained only in the mountains. Another popular meat is roast kid which is goat meat.

The arts are important to the Swiss people and they have their concerts, theater groups and opera. Movies from all over the world are shown in Switzerland in the same language in which they were filmed.

Mr. Treichler, a likeable chap with a delightful Swiss accent, said coffee is drunk with one half milk and one half coffee but instant coffee is the same as ours. The Swiss people also drink Turkish coffee which is made from powdered coffee and is a thick drink.
